

Annual Winter Meeting & Tour

January 12–13, 2017

Estancia, NM

(East Torrance Soil and Water Conservation District Complex – 700 10th Street)

Save the date. The NM Section of the Society for Range Management is hosting our annual winter meeting in Estancia, NM on Thursday and Friday, January 12–13, 2017. We plan to tour the Dog Head Fire on Thursday morning (weather permitting) and then return to the East Torrance Soil and Water Conservation District Complex in Estancia for a hot lunch. Following lunch we will hear from a variety of speakers focusing on topics important to NM rangelands. The meeting will continue Friday morning with more speakers including students from NMSU and beyond. Our annual awards banquet, catered by the Torrance 4-H Club will close out our meeting (noon until 1 p.m.)

More details to come soon via email and our website.

Lodging can be found in Moriarty and Mountainair.
