

Publish from Your Workshop, Symposium or Session in Rangelands!

Special sessions, symposia, or workshops at the SRM Annual Meeting often make for great articles in Rangelands. There are several options for publishing that range from a single article to a sponsored issue

1. Single article summarizing a workshop, symposium, or Ignite session. Submissions receive normal peer review.
2. Virtual Special Issue – multiple articles submitted and published as they are completed. Organized into a special issue online (dedicated webpage).
3. Print Special Issue – multiple articles submitted. Published together in a single issue that also contains non-related articles.
4. Sponsored Issue – dedicated issue of Rangelands. All articles published Gold Open Access. Single charge so authors do not pay article publication fees.
